

RODRIGO HOYOS

Rodrigo Hoyos is a circus performer who discovered his passion for the arts at the National School Circo Para Todos in Cali, where he trained for four years. Since graduating, he has dedicated his life to performing, traveling the world, and showcasing his incredible talents on some of the most prestigious stages.

Over the years, Rodrigo has performed in a wide range of international locations, including London, France, Venezuela, Ireland, and Australia. He has held numerous contracts as a performer on P&O Australia and UK Cruise Lines and featured in Colombia's prestigious show Delirio with his unicycle act.

Since relocating to the Gold Coast seven years ago, Rodrigo has performed at some of Australia's top venues, including The Star Casino in Brisbane and the Gold Coast, Sea World, Movie World, and even as a circus performer in the film Elvis. He has also performed in numerous corporate events and recently completed a six-week tour across Australia with Circus Quirkus

Rodrigo's specialty acts include unicycle, dance trapeze, juggling, hand-to-hand, and acrobatics. With over 20 years of experience, he has also been a dedicated teacher, passing on his knowledge and expertise to the next generation of circus performers.

Rodrigo's passion for circus arts continues to shine through in everything he does, as he keeps pushing the boundaries of performance and inspiring audiences around the globe.
